v. ) ORDER OF DISMISSAL CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF )
CORRECTIONS, ) Defendant. )

This case was opened when Plaintiff, a California prisoner currently incarcerated in Tehachapi, California, filed a document consisting prison administrative appeals in which he complained of actions taken by prison officials there. He then wrote a letter to the Court stating that the document was inadvertently filed because his claims are “immature”, unexhausted, and are not properly filed in this Court. Plaintiff is correct that claims arising out of events taking place at Tehachapi or actions by officials located there are not properly filed in the Northern District of California, but rather the Eastern District because that is where Tehachapi is located. See 28 U.S.C. §§ 84, 1391(b). As a consequence, and because Plaintiff indicates that his claims are not yet exhausted, this
